Audi Sydney Harbour Regatta 2011 Report

The Audi Regatta on Sydney Harbour was held on the 5th and 6th of March.

Racing was close over the regatta and the harbour was a sight with over 300 competing boats in 20 divisions.

After 6 races and numerous protests the Regatta winners were Karyn Gojnich and team on AUS 59.

Ladies Twilight Report

This year the Yngling Division of the Ladies Twilight Series was very competitive, with the final results being very close.

Thanks to all of the lady skippers and their crews for turning up each week and a big thanks to the boat owners who generously lend their boats and often their expertise as well.

Firstly congratulations must go to Jeane-Claude Strong, who only put in a few appearances but still managed to be closest to her start time in one of the races. For the rest of us who managed to sneak away from work early every week; it was nice to see that each team improved over the course of the season. This meant by the end of the season most boats were finishing within a minute or two of each other. On a few occasions the choice to stay close to Bradley's or venture out into the channel for the final run home was the deciding factor in the races.

Once again thanks to all the competitors and to the RSYS for facilitating the series

Autumn Championship Report

The season closing Autumn Championship was held on Saturday 2nd April in cold, windy and wet conditions ranging from 12 to 25 knots. Racing was close over the 3 races with often the top 3 or 4 boats separated by a matter of seconds whilst all the time avoiding renegade Etchells out of control at the bottom mark. Race 1 and 2 were won by Hamish Jarrett and team on AUS 60 and the final race by Michael Nash and team on AUS 57. This resulted in a win on count back to AUS 60, with AUS 57 second and Gary Wogas on AUS 45 third.
