Aussie Success at the Worlds

Congratulations to Hamish Jarrett, Federico Lauro and Alana Bracken for doing so well at Worlds in Austria and coming 13th overall, including winning the first race. Nick Howe, Beren Beowulf and James Shannon came 41st. Chris and Jan Harper with Adrian Amer came 44th. Robyn Grosvenor and her Austrian crew came 53rd. All the teams did us proud and next up it's our turn to host the Worlds so get on board – It's an Yngling World!

Yngling Halloween Dinner - Get your Ghoul On!!

Don't forget the Yngling Halloween fundraising dinner to be held October 28th. More scary details to come.....

Winter Series

Congratulations to Gary Wogas and his crew on "Karma" in winning the RSYS winter series. Conditions were certainly variable with either no wind or plenty of it. It was great to see boats out each weekend even on the chilliest day. All fleets have a break now until the commencement of the spring season in September.

Blood Donation

It is a fact, that 1 in 3 of us will need blood donation in our lives yet only 1 in 30 people donate. This week AIYA Vice President – Gary Pearce was among the honourees at Parliament House for donating blood over 50 times. Another member of our association - Bryan Riddell has donated over 90 times. Thank you for making a valuable contribution to our community.
